Project Information

Project Name or Project/ Program Title	2009 Recovery Act STOP Violence Against Women Formula Grant	Activity Codes (NAICS or NTEE-NPC) (up to 10)
Quarterly Activities/ Project Description	Overall purpose of funds is to retain and create new positions to strengthen the State's response to acts of violence against women. Two advocates (one went on unpaid leave during this quarter) provided advocacy and supportive services to victims of domestic violence; one advocate provided therapeutic services to victims of sexual assault; the Delaware Court of Common Pleas hired 2 part-time positions to identify and expedite domestic violence cases in CCP, and enhance the court's response to victims of domestic violence and the justice system. This program experienced a gap in service due to promotional opportunities and transfers to other departments. The positions were filled again during this quarter. the Delaware Department of Justice continued supporting a prosecutor to strengthen the prosecution's response to violent crimes against women; again due to promotional opportunity, this program experience a gap in service mid-quarter. A culturally specific agency continued to offer bilingual victim advocate to work with victims of domestic violence with limited/no English proficiency. And the Capitol Police was able to support officer overtime to provide enhanced security to Family Court during PFA Hearings. Officers were assigned to specific courts during the designated PFA hearing days. The New Castle County police supported a VAWA Victim Assistance in the Victims' Unit.
